COFFIN GIRL SAYS SHE WAS ABDUCTED

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 6.—Miss Clara Coffin, who mysteriously disappeared from her wealthy father's home in Orange, N. J., told a strange story this afternoon at the home of her cousin. Joseph Crow, where she arrived last night.

She said the had been hypnotized by strangers who abducted her and she believed their purpose was to have held her for in a fair way to spread through the ransom. She did not recover from the hypnotic stupor until the arrived. train on which she had been placed reached Cedar Rapids, la., when her abductors left the car for dinner.

- She then wrote a telegram to Joseph Crow in Smaha and asked the brakeman to file it. Her story aroused the brakeman's interest and he helped her to get to this city.

The girl says her abductors spoke with a French accent, but she cannot describe them.

She is very ill at the home of Mr Crow.
